Background

MEC (www.mec.af) was created after the need for independent monitoring and evaluation of anti-corruption efforts was identified at a series of international conferences. MEC is wholly independent of the Government of Afghanistan, and receives financial support from the international community. This independence ensures that MEC is capable of carrying out its mandate in a transparent manner without undue influence. The governing Committee, which is made up of 3 Afghan and 3 international anti-corruption experts, meets in Afghanistan quarterly, normally resulting in the setting of recommendations and benchmarks. MEC issues regular reports every three months, with interim reports being issued regularly. The Committee is supported by a technical secretariat of national and international staff led by an Executive Director, and this position would oversee our technical staff in research, in Vulnerability to Corruption Assessments (VCAs), Follow-up of Anti-Corruption benchmarks and M&E. The TD will report to the Executive Director.

Job Summary

Senior Policy Advisor (SPA) will provide International Anti-Corruption expertise to MEC and within the Technical Secretariat on the daily basis. The Advisor will act as lead liaison with Donors and International Stakeholders, keeping them well informed about MEC programs and activities, collecting knowledge about donors plans and intentions. The Advisor will also lead on capacity development in relation to Anti-Corruption expertise for MEC staff.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Policy Advisor of the International Joint Anti-Corruption Monitoring and Evaluation Committee (MEC) will be under the overall guidance of the MEC and the direct management of the Executive Director (ED). The Senior Policy Advisor will be expected to perform the following tasks, subject to operating procedures to be decided by MEC:

- The SPA will represent MEC to Embassy officials, Donors and International stakeholders.
- The SPA will be responsible for providing the authoritative overview of the status of Anti-Corruption in the country and especially all international aspects of this.
- The SPA will lead on capacity development in relation to Anti-Corruption expertise for MEC staff.
- The SPA will provide guidance, supervision, and hands-on support to the MEC Communications team.
- The SPA will assure that all MEC products include suitable references to international laws and best practices.

- The SPA will perform any other relevant tasks assigned by the Executive Director and the Committee.

Summary of key functions:

- Provide the policy advice, recommend and design appropriate strategy for collection and dissemination of information on anti-corruption policies and activities.
- Advise leadership in building alliances and networks, and strengthening of civil society organizations at regional and national levels for enhanced advocacy efforts and greater participation in policy advocacy through MEC
- Analyze the anti-corruption scenarios in the country and come up with priorities to be addressed through the MEC
- Analyze the political, social, and economic developments as they relate to anti-corruption
- Analyze the legal frameworks on anti-corruption in Afghanistan
- Analyze the role and performance of various stakeholders in Afghanistan
- Study and propose feasible approaches to anti-corruption in specific sectors of Afghanistan.
- Coordinate and collect information on anti-corruption policies and activities through the three technical pillars of the Technical Secretariat
- Lead research/mapping of the key anti-corruption actors and their strategies to engage with them through MEC
- Advise MEC through Executive Director in coalition building and strategic partnership development and harmonizing anti-corruption movement in Afghanistan
- Provide regular updates to the Executive Director on the progress and achievements in the activities of the Communications team;
- Ensure close coordination with Government counterparts, international community, civil society and other stakeholders;
- Take part in relevant coordination forums and meetings related to the mandate of the MEC secretariat ;
- Analyze research material and prepare input to white papers/position papers and policy briefs used in discussing policy change and modification of legislation for MEC
- Identify and profile stories with learning impact
- Based on MEC recommendations, develop and implement lobbying strategies for tactfully engaging government to act against corruption
- Support the development and growth of ties to the targeted entities and Ministries at all stages of development of MEC products – Assuring continuity of MEC engagement before, during and after any research is undertaken, including the sustained success of M&E on implementation of MEC’s recommendations in the post-publication phase.
- Directly engage with the Communications team in messaging on all platforms and formats, including concise and professional Press Releases, social media presence, pre-release press briefings, journalist education events, identification of notable successes within the scope of MEC’s M&E activities, and general strengthening of the Secretariat’s support to the effectiveness of the Communication team.
